

GEYSERVILLE COMMUNITY FOUNDATION

Oliver Ranch Tour Sunday, April 26th, 2020

Oliver Ranch is a unique 100-acre preserve dedicated to site-specific art. In 1985, Steven and Nancy Oliver commissioned their first piece. Since then, the Olivers have commissioned 19 works that rise up over the rolling hills of the ranch's landscape.

As lifelong art patrons, the Olivers see the ranch as a way to nurture the growth and development of artists, who opt to work directly with the Olivers for a more "earthy experience."

The Oliver Ranch is not open to the public; tours are strictly for the benefit of nonprofit groups such as the Geyserville Community Foundation.

The tour meets at the the Oriental Hall, 1000 Hwy 128, Geyserville, east of town at the intersection of Moody Lane and Hwy 128, at 9:30am on Sunday, April 26th, 2020. Transportation to the Oliver Ranch will be provided as part of the tour pricing. The tour generally lasts 2-3 hours and covers 2.5 miles, the tour is not wheelchair accessible and there are no onsite rest rooms. Don't miss out on this wonderful opportunity to see this magnificent Ranch! Please contact Victoria Heiges if you have questions, 415-608-6160.
